Description

T100 waterproof sheets use aluminium oxide abrasive for multi-purpose use when wet and dry sanding.

Features & Benefits

A multi-purpose sandpaper which can be used wet or dry; wet use affords a cleaner surface while sanding.

Aluminium oxide abrasive

Norton T100 aluminium oxide waterproof paper can be used in wet and dry applications

Made with aluminium oxide grain and flexible paper backing, ideal for use on varnish and metal.

The flexible latex backing helps the sheets adapt to curves and contours

Waterproof paper backing for wet and dry sanding

Can be used alone, with a sanding block or clip fixing electric or cordless sander.

Electrostatic deposition of the grain provides good stock removal due to its aggressive cutting action. The sandpaper is well suited to removing paint spots and dust inclusions

Multi-purpose product

Excellent price / performance ratio
